

Queenstown Lakes District Council Proposed District Plan - Stage 3&3b – Corrections to Summary of Decisions Requested (19 March 2020)

On 30 January 2020 Queenstown Lakes District Council notified a summary of decisions requested for the Proposed District Plan - Stage 3&3b. It has come to our attention that there were errors in the summary document and web mapping application tool as follows:

- Submission point #3309.1 (Al Angus – Landowner Rights Protection) was incorrectly summarised as a submission in support.
- Submission point #3383.7 (Phil Brown – Z Energy Ltd, BP Oil NZ Ltd & Mobil Oil NZ Ltd) the summary has been amended to include an alternative approach sought.
- Submission #3201 (Alison Devlin – Willowridge Developments Ltd) is missing a submission point in regards to extending the General Industrial Zone. This point was also not mapped on the web mapping application tool.
- Submission point #31024.5 (Matthew Day – Wayfare) was correctly summarised, however an area where rezoning is sought was not mapped on the web mapping application tool.

This notice advises as of Thursday 19 March 2020, a corrected Summary of Decisions Requested is made available. The Chair of the Hearing Panel has agreed for Council to invite further submissions until Friday 3 April 2020 and supports the granting of a waiver of time for late further submissions on these matters received up until that date.

The corrected summary is available at: <https://www.qldc.govt.nz/your-council/district-plan/proposed-district-plan> - Free online access is available at QLDC Libraries and Offices.

Who can make a further submission?
